There will be a regular meeting of Las Vegas Lodge No. 403, B. F. O. Elks, on Tuesday night next at the lodge rooms.

Next Monday afternoon the feast of St. John will be celebrated at Agua Zarcia. It is expected that a number of Las Vegans will be present.

The New Mexicans will play the Santa Fe boys on the encampment grounds tomorrow afternoon. The game will commence at 2 o'clock.

A potato famine in Las Vegas was broken yesterday by a shipment of "murphies" to Grock, Kelly & Company by Wells-Fargo express from Trinidad.

During the coming week, will be celebrated the wedding of Miss Margarita Ortiz and Mr. Juan Baca. The wedding will probably take place in the West side cathedral.

Winter wheat is now being cut on mesa lands that will average about fifteen bushels to the acre, but should have averaged fully thirty bushels had an inch of rain fallen on it.

Effective July 20, the mail route from East Las Vegas to Rociada, via Sibley, usually known as Upper Las Vegas, is discontinued and the old route will be used, lessening the distance a mile and a half each way, three times a week. This change was made on account of the discontinuance of the Sibley office.

NOTICE
